Getting Started  Easy Set-up

The BIOTONE SPA Treatment Protocol is for a Customized Body Exfoliation, followed by one of our three Customized Mud Wraps or a Hydrating Body Wrap, finishing with a Customized Body Hydrator. This is a dry room protocol. If you are using a shower or Vichy, use appropriate protocol during the period of product removal.

BE PREPARED
If you are familiar with providing full body spa treatments, you may add, change, or omit steps as it suits your personal or client preference.
If this is your first time doing a full body spa treatment, you are encouraged to follow the protocol described until you are comfortable with all the steps and can complete them without referring to the instructions. This will typically take 4 practice sessions. After that you can alter your table set up or product application as it suits your personal or client preference.

WHAT TO ASK THE CLIENT
Before providing any treatment to your client, be sure to discuss any contraindications the client may have.
Contraindications include: active cancer, epilepsy, infectious/contagious skin conditions, low blood pressure, pregnancy or lactation, heart disease, diabetes, cardiovascular conditions, inflammation, severe abrasions, or allergies to product ingredients.

BEFORE YOU BEGIN
Show the client the prepared room. Inform the client where to store their clothes or robe after you leave the room. Instruct them to lay face down on the table beneath the top bath sheet. Prior to leaving the room, client may select the Customizing Complex (pg 3) they prefer in their treatments.
While client is undressing for treatment, leave to prepare your body treatments.

WHAT YOU’LL NEED
1 warming pad only in dry room or table pad not shown
1 twin fitted sheet not shown
2 full flat sheets one is optional
1 queen cotton blanket

Customizing Complexes

Make to Your Treatments Unique

Our exclusive therapeutic and signature complexes allow complete customization to meet the special needs of your client. Once you have customized the product return to the room. Nestle the mud and massage lubricant in your towel cabinet or roaster for maximum heating, or place in hot water bath to heat.

EXFOLIATION TREATMENT

As you begin this next step of the treatment, let your client know the special benefits of the product you are applying. Apply exfoliator to dry skin only. Undrape and re-cover the client as appropriate during the product application to prevent chilling and respect modesty. During exfoliation use your fingertips as well as your full palm using vigorous, quick circular strokes.

1. Begin on lower body by spreading the exfoliator in upward direction along full length of leg.

2. Returning to ankles, scrub skin using small circular movements on side and back of leg, slowly moving in an upward direction on leg and buttocks. Repeat 2-3 times ending with one long stroke to the foot. Avoid back of knee.

4-6. Move to head of table and apply exfoliator first on back, then arms, and hands. Stabilize elbow and wrist joint when exfoliating arm. Scrub skin alternating large and small strokes. Repeat on elbows and rough patches.

7-8. Remove exfoliator with warm moist towels in same order applied, toweling area 1-2 times insuring exfoliator removal. Use one towel for lower body and one towel for upper body. When removal is complete, hold bath sheet between you and your client instructing them to turn over. Re-cover client with bath sheet.

9-10. Exfoliate client in same order as previous side. First legs; then upper body. Remove exfoliator as before. Use one hand towel for upper body and one for lower body. When removing exfoliant on décolleté, arms and stomach, cover breast and pelvic area with hand towel. Cover client with bath sheet after each section is cleansed to avoid chilling.

1. Assist client to sitting position while covered. Moving quickly to avoid mud cooling, apply mud evenly over back. Use one hand for mud application. Roll lower bath sheet towards buttocks. Assist client to lie back down & lift hips to remove lower bath sheet. Client should now be in direct contact with plastic wrap.

2. Have client bend knee, resting foot on table, rolling slightly to one side to allow proper mud coverage. Apply mud to inside and outside leg and buttocks. Avoid applying mud to feet.

3. When leg is covered with mud, straighten and cover leg and foot with plastic. Repeat on other leg. Cover client's lower body with bath sheet to prevent body from chilling.

4. Apply mud to stomach, then arm and décolleté. Have client place arm in comfortable resting position for duration of wrap. Cover mud with plastic. Finish with other arm and wrap with plastic.

5. Wrap client with thermal blanket, optional flat sheet, & cotton blanket. Place a bath sheet over this cocoon to seal in heat. If preferred, place an eye-pillow over their eyes. Leave the room, allowing client 15-20 minute rest. (Occasionally checking in on them during rest) Place finishing product in roaster.

6. Optional step. Return to provide 5-10 minute scalp massage while client is resting in wrap.

7. Test towel heat before applying. Remove mud from chest, arms, and stomach with warm moist towels.

8. Assist client to sit up. With fresh warm moist hand towel, remove remaining mud from back.

9. Prior to client lying back down, roll/fold plastic and thermal blanket towards their buttocks. Have client lie down covering upper body with bath sheet. For each leg, remove mud with separate fresh moist hand towel.

10. Peel back plastic from one leg. Begin on thigh, remove mud with fresh hand towel, cleansing top then back of leg. Have client lift hip, then roll/fold used section of plastic and thermal blanket. Repeat on other leg. Remove plastic and thermal blanket from table entirely. Cover client with bath sheet to prevent body from chilling.

Wrap  Two Products in One - Use Like a Mud. Use Like a Finishing Treatment.

Ultra Hydration

Follow the same full body mud protocol (pg 5) for hydrating wrap. The Body Luxe Hydrating Wrap can be removed like a mud, or can remain on skin and be used for the finishing treatment.

Removing Body Luxe Hydrating Wrap is optional, please check client’s preference. No additional finishing product is needed when using the Body Luxe Hydrating Wrap formula.

1. Follow same full body mud protocol steps 1-6 on page 5. Note: when peeling away plastic, wipe away as much excess Body Luxe as possible with the plastic.

A - option
If your client prefers to have the wrap removed follow the full body mud protocol steps 7-10 on page 5.

B - option
If you or your client prefer to use the Body Luxe Hydrating Wrap for the finishing treatment continue to step 1 on page 8.

MASSAGE FINISHING TREATMENT
At this point in the treatment, you can finish with a 5-10 minute application of a hydrating lotion, smoothing butter, or proceed with a massage therapy service.

Optional for Massage
Hold up bath sheet between you and client. Instruct client to lie face up on top of fitted sheet, and underneath flat sheet (blanket and optional flat sheet if you kept it on table).

1. Undrape and re-cover client as appropriate while you apply finishing lotion, oil or butter. Begin application on right leg, then left leg, stomach, décolleté, left arm and then right arm. When applying lubricant to stomach, use hand towel to cover client’s chest area.

2. When finished with front side, have client turn over onto stomach. Apply lubricant starting with legs and finish with upper back. When treatment is complete, leave room and let client rest until ready to get dressed.
